Revisit "1968: A Closer Look at Its Impact"

"We had to be a part of those vast liberation movements. Writers, thinkers, poets, activists, everybody," said activist Guadalupe Castillo, one of our panelists at the October 2 event at Special Collections. Dancer and choreographer Barbea Williams talked about growing up on the South Side of Chicago, and writer and journalist Gregory McNamee discussed Edward Abbey and the impact of Desert Solitaire. Lastly, folksinger Ted Warmbrand performed and talked about protest music.
