

March 2019

View this email online

It takes today to build tomorrow: Student Success District renovations well underway

We couldn't be more excited about the Student Success District renovations happening in the Main Library. In this video about the District, Dean Shan Sutton said, "This is really distinctive to the UA. We're not aware of any other university that has attempted this in terms of integrating library spaces and services, as well as student success and student affairs spaces and services so that students can easily move from one space and service to another."

Visit successdistrict.arizona.edu for more information.

Watch the video interview

Albrecht Classen's Early Books Lecture Series turns 16

The UA Libraries has partnered with Department of German Studies Distinguished Professor Albrecht Classen on the Early Books Lecture Series for 16 years. Each year, Professor Classen invites UA scholars to join him in giving presentations about medieval, Renaissance and early modern texts held by Special Collections. Join us on April 3 as Professor Classen presents the first of three lectures for 2019.

Discover more about the lecture series

Pat Mora spreads "bookjoy" at Libraries Annual Luncheon

At the Libraries Annual Luncheon on March 4, author, poet and literacy advocate, Pat Mora, read poems from her latest book, Encantado, and spoke to the importance of libraries. She said, "Supporting university libraries is noble work—they are treasure houses."

Read more about Pat's appearance

Health Sciences Library Special Collections moves

Doing research on the history of the UA College of Medicine or health sciences in the Southwest or border region? The Health Sciences Library Special Collections has been relocated to the Main

Stephen Bosch receives 2019 Ross Atkinson Award

Librarian Stephen (Steve) Bosch has

Library Special Collections to improve the access and preservation of health sciences-related archival and historical collections.

Find out more about the move ▶▶▶

#WeAreUAZLibraries

Octavio (Tavo) Fuentes is the Assistant Dean in Finance & Administration, a proud first generation college graduate, Wildcat and southside Tucsonan. He also likes to travel abroad once a year.

Discover Tavo's favorite library resources ▶▶▶ worked at UA Libraries for 35 years and was awarded the 2019 Ross Atkinson Lifetime Achievement Award from the Association for Library Collections & Technical Services (ALCTS), a division of the American Library Association (ALA).

Learn about Steve's achievements
▶▶▶

Nicole Pagowsky honored by ACRL Instruction Section

Associate Librarian Nicole Pagowsky and the Critical Librarianship and Pedagogy Symposium (CLAPS) have received a 2019 Special Certificate of Recognition and Appreciation from the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL) Instruction Section.

Keep reading about Nicole and CLAPS
▶▶▶

