

Digital Borderlands Mellon grant recipients announced

In 2020, the University Libraries launched a grant program focusing on integrating library services and expertise into storytelling and data-intensive humanities scholarship, highlighting stories, people, and events from the U.S.-Mexico borderlands region.

Now in the program's third year, we're announcing the newest cohort of University of Arizona research teams that will each be awarded $60,000 through a three-year $750,000 Digital Borderlands grant funded by the Mellon Foundation.

Learn about the projects

UArizona receives $1.18M for borderlands research and archive project

The university's Confluencer for Creative Inquiry and University Libraries' Special Collections are working together to create a community-led archive that offers a more comprehensive portrayal of the border.

Read about the partnership ▶▶▶

Data grant program supports campus research

Researcher and interdisciplinary environmental scientist, Yevhenia Varyvoda, was selected as this year's data grant program recipient. The goal is to build a data collection for broad use by the University of Arizona community.

Learn about Varyvoda's research ▶▶▶

New book collection highlights social justice, antiracism

During the spring semester, we introduced Books That Matter, a new print collection that's connected to our commitment to support social justice and antiracism.

Learn about the collection ▶▶▶

Jennifer Martin joins JAMA Network Library Advisory Board

Jennifer Martin, a librarian in the Health Sciences Library and clinical instructor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice and Science, has been named to the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) Network Library Advisory Board.

Read about the appointment ▶▶▶

Data Visualization Challenge winners announced

Undergraduate and graduate students from different disciplines were invited to submit visual displays of data to tell stories. We're happy to announce the winners of the 2022 Data Visualization Challenge.

See the winning submissions ▶▶▶

CATalyst Studios summer hours

Beginning May 31, summer hours for CATalyst Studios are Monday-Friday, 10am-2pm, with some exceptions. We welcome students, faculty, staff, and community members to learn new skills and connect with others.

www.library.arizona.edu ▶ (520) 621-6442 ▶ library@arizona.edu

Share this email:

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove™
Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.
View this email online.

1510 E. University Blvd.
Tucson, AZ | 85721 US

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

